600D CONTESTS ENJOYED AT MORRIS PARK

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON. acing is rapidly regaining its popularity. The Racing is rapidly regaining its popularity. The attendance at Morris Park yesterday afternoon exceeded the fondest hopes of the enthusiasts. Although the programme was only moderately attracthe rowd enjoyed an excellent day's sport. threatening weather caused many timid persons the infeatening weather the Harlem Bridge, as the dark clouds were frequently rent with lightning.

At the end of furlong Abuse rushed into the lead and opened gap of three lengths, with Titmouse next in When the turn for home was made, Hamilton on Golderest, who had been running in fifth postset sail for the leaders. It was one of Hamigon's old-time rushes, and, like a Yale flying sedge, it was simply irresistible, for he went past Timouse as the Empire Express passes a freight Abuse, who had begun to stop, was two to the good twenty yards from the wire. Littlefield used his hands and heels, but it was of 20 avail, as Hamilton kept Goldcrest at it and won o avail, as from Abuse on the post. Titmouse was a head from Abuse on the post. Titmouse was life. The crowd accepted the defeat of the favorsophically, and joked about the reincarnaof Hamilton brought about by William Lake

The threatened storm broke before the jockeys reighed in after the race, and the crowd was treated to a magnificent electrical display. The second race was a selling affair, with only three entries. The rain fell in sheets, and in a few moments the track was a sea of mud. Benamela, who was at 5 to track was a setting. The race for the contest. Arbuckie and Successful were added, and contest. Arbuckie and Tropical were withdrawn, ich left six contestants for the honors. Royal Rose, who carried 122 pounds, including a sevenpenalty, was the favorite in the betting at 6 to 5 against her chances. Lithos was supported at 5 to 2; Successful had some followers at 4 to 1. while 15 to 1 was freely quoted against Arbuckle. There was no delay at the post. The field was sent pray to a capital start. Successful led for a quarsway to a capital start. Successful led for a quarge of a mile, when Royal Rose went into the lead, sit was immediately challenged by Lithos. When he clip was passed, the Keene filly began to slip in the uncertain going, and Lithos poked his nose into the lead. His triumph was short-lived, however, as L.J. McCafferty's light-weighted Arbuckle, under orimin's riding, caught the struggling pair a few lents from the finish and won by a neck from Lithos, who was a head in front of Royal Rose. The race proved conclusively that Royal Rose is a filly of superior class, capable of running fast and carrying weight.

race proved conclusively that Royal Rose is a filly of superior class, capable of running fast and carring weight.

The fourth race was the Harlem Stakes, a seventhrong dash, with selling conditions. Beldemere was the favorite at 11 to 5 against her chances. There was a determined plunge on Cromwell, at 4 to 1, while many persons accepted 4 to 1 against Shelock. Ray S. had some following, and a few wagers were placed upon Manchester at long odds. Taral rode Beldemere, who was easily the best of the lot. Cromwell raced in the lead, until haf-way down the homestretch, when Beldemere ranged solongside of him. O'Leary began to use his whip and to ride furiously. Taral made a grandstand finish, with all the accompaniments, and aroused the enthusiasm of the spectators who cheered again and again. Beldemere won by a neck from Cromwell, who beat Hanwell two lengths for the place.

The last race was a handleap in which three homestretch was reached, when St. Maxim raced up to him and held him safe for the remainder of the fourney, winning in hand by a quarter of a taght on the post. Dorian was so badly beaten, that a well-known turfman remarked: "Bill' Daily end beat Dorian on a bleycle."

Insterday was extremely encouraging to the fixed of racing; but there is a general clamor for larger fields. Charles Fleischman is setting a good mample to the Eastern turfmen by entering and racing his horses frequently.

Captain Quinby has made two changes in the team. He has himself gone to shortstop again and he has put Bartlett on third. De Saude has been sent back to second base.

MRS. LIVINGSTON'S LONG WATCH.

THEY'LL NOT PLANT A POST BEFORE HER PLACE IF SHE HAS TO SIT THERE ALL SUMMER. , Mrs. Frank Livingston, who has a restaurant in the Bowery, near Tilyou's Walk, Coney Island, was at last accounts sitting in a rocking-chair over a hole in the ground. The Midway Plaisance Company has rented the property next to Mrs. Livingston's place and has started to build a reproduction of an Oriental street. The plans call for a post directly in front of Mrs. Livingston's door. The workmen, in following the plans, dug the hole for workmen, in following the plans, dug the hole for the pole, and had it done before Mrs. Livingston discovered it. When she did find out she made trouble at once. To stop the setting of the post she placed a rocking-chair over the hole and sat down in the chair. The workmen asked her to move, but she refused, and, being of a heavy weight, the workmen did not care to move her by weight, the workmen did not care to move her by force. The men stepped back and waited. Mrs. Livingston had her sewing brought to her and proceeded to work. Up to 10 o'clock last night Mrs. Livingston was still sitting over the hole and the workmen were waiting for her to vacate. She says that if she has to sit there all summer the post will not be planted.

KNOCKED DOWN IN BROADWAY.

A NEWARK MAN BADLY INJURED BY A CABLE

Henry C. Wilson, of No. 81 Columbia et., Newark, down by a cables ar, and sustained injuries to his head that rendered him unconscious. He was removed to the New-York Hospital, where upon examination it was discovered that he was suffering from a fracture of the skuil. The gripman, Thomas O'Connor, was arrested and locked up in the West Thirtieth st. station.

Wilson had just run across the uplown track in front of a northbound car, and evidently did not see car No. 188, bound south, coming along. O'Connor did not expect that Wilson intended crossing in front of his car, but he applied the brake. Wilson started to cross in front of the car. He had reached the middle of the track when the car attuck him and knocked him down. In failing his head struck the payement. The gripman managed to stop the car in time to save wilson from being run over. A crowl witnessed the accident. The injured mar was picked up by several policemen and carried to the sidewalk. He was unconscious and bleeding profusely from two deep gishes on the side of his head wilson was still unconscious when he reached the hospital.

PART OF THE FLIXT'S CREW IN PORT.

THREE GERMANS ARRIVE ON THE CATANIA-THE AMERICAN SAILORS FROM THE BURNED VESSEL LEFT AT PERNAMBUCO. Among the passengers who arrived in New-York yesterday morning aboard the German steamship Catania from Pernambuco were three of the crew of the ship Charles R. Flint, which was burned on April 21 last when on a voyage to Shanghal. The ship was burned when off Governor's Island last fall, and was rebuilt by her owners, Flint & Co., and left this port for Shanghat loaded with case oil on April 1. Early in the morning of April 21 fire broke out, and in spite of the efforts of the crew to quell it Captain Carver was forced to order ill hands to take to the small boats. Soon after the vessel had been abandoned an explosion blew up her decks.

The crew passed four days and six hours in the small boats before they were rescued by the Pacific Mail steamship Newport and landed at Pernambuco. The wife of Captain Carver, of the burned buco. The wife of Captain Carver, of the burned vessel, passed through the entire experience, and is said to have displayed great courage.

The Charles R. Flint halled from Corinto, Nicaragua, and as there was no Nicaraguan Consul at Pernambuco the men had to shift for themselves. The three who arrived yesterday were sent on by the German Consul, all being German subjects, but transportation was refused the Americans in the crew by the American Consul on the ground that the Nicaraguan authorities were the preper persons to attend to the matter. The men were three days in a sailors' home, but were turned addiff when their money was spent, and they camped on the beach near where they came ashore.

MONEY FOR CITY PURPOSES.

APPROPRIATIONS BY THE BOARD OF ESTIMATE-AN OLD CLAIM PAID.

The Board of Estimate met yesterday in the Controller's Office, Mayor Strong presiding. Plans for new public baths were submitted. The Controller said that he had not fully examined the plans, and the matter was laid over until the next meeting. The subject of an appropriation of $576,482, to come out of a special appropriation of $1,000,000, for two the Controller. It was announced that a public hearing in regard to the baths would be had in the Aldermanic Chamber at 4 p. m. to-day.

A number of money appropriations were made by the Board. The old claim of John C. O'Brien, of Rochester, amounting to $20,000 for legal services in connection with the sale of Ward's Island to the connection with the sale of wards island to the State for $1,000,000, was ordered to be paid. The sum of $24,000 was allowed for the purchase of two lots for the new site of the College of the City of New-York. Four more lots were offered for $36,000, but $5,500. The proposition was laid over.

yesterday afternoon at a little after 2 o'clock, but the blackness was of the clouds cloudy, and behind it "the sun was still a-shining." Yesterday's storm blew up like a full-rigged, able-bodied thunderstorm, at about 2:15, and people began to scurry in all di-rections for shelter. But the thunder did not roll to any large extent, nor did the lightnings flash with blinding glare. It rained, however, and rained hard, from 2:25 to 3:20 p. m., and during the same period of time it blew, and blew hard. It was not a hurricane, but it was a "right smart" gale, and it travelled at the rate of fifty-one miles an hour for a short space day, but the mercury was just getting up its courage and had crawled up to 81 degrees when the storm broke. The first and only peal of thunder frightened it nearly to death, and "trun it down" about 9 degrees in five minutes, and by 3:20 p. m., when the sterm ended, the mercury was cowering away down at the 66 mark.

The rain, brief as it was, was welcomed by everybody who has a thought for the needs of the farmers or the country at large, and as a change from the dust storm of Monday it was a grateful relief. While it lasted, the narrow streets shut in by high buildings were about as full of rain as they were of sand on the preceding afternoon.

The air was thoroughly cleared by the wind and rain, and the hours before sunset and after were delightfully cool and refreshing.

At midnight the indications for to-day pointed toward fair skies and cooler breezes from the north.

STILL PROUT SLEEPS ON.

STARVATION CURE HAS NO EFFECT ON BETH-ISRAEL HOSPITAL'S CATA-

Moritz Prout is still sleeping in the little room on the second floor of the Beth-Israel Hospital, No. 206 East Broadway. The forty-eight hours' fast which ended yesterday morning at 8 o'clock proved as ineffectual as the many other means to which the physicians who have charge of the case have resorted to to bring the young man out of his cataeptic state. On Monday he responded more readily which began twenty-four days ago, and the phy sicians in charge believed that the twitchings of of returning consciousness, but this proved not to be

Hospital.

One of the physicians said that the fact that each attack has been more severe than the one preceding shows that it is a progressive disease. Despite the fact that little nourishment has been given in the last few days, the boy retains his healthy appearance, he loses no flesh and his temperature, pulse and respiration continue normal.

For several days the room in which Prout lives was visited by many people who were anxious to see the sleeping boy, but the doors were closed yesterday to all except physicians and members of Prout's family. "We have tried everything," said one of the physicians yesterday, "but we have been equally unsuccessful with all remedies, from noise to starvation and now we will try absolute rest and quiet. The boy's mother and nurse are with lim, but no other person will be admitted." When asked if he expected the boy to come out of his present condition soon, the doctor said: "We would not be surprised if he awoke at any moment, but we would not wonder if he continued to sleep for days. He seems to be in perfect health, he digests the food which we inject and we can decover nothing abnormal in his condition except the total absence of will power."

As to the reports that needles had been jabbed into the boy's legs, br. Friedman said. "That part of our experimenting has been exaggerated. We did no more than to prick the body slightly and in a manner which no one could rightly call crue!"

Dr. J. Halpern has been placed in charge of the case, with Drs. Nelson and Friedman, of the house staff, as assistants. Physicians in great number continue to call at the hospital to see the sleeping boy, all of whom seem to feel confident that he will recover.

IN MEMORY OF MARTI.

CUBANS OBSERVE THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF HIS DEATH.

Cuban patriots to the number of about four hundred gathered in Chickering Hall last night, in commemoration of the first anniversary of the death of José Marti. Among all classes of Cubans who are in sympathy with the struggle for the independence of the island the name of José Marti, the in-surgent leader who was killed by the Spaniards at Dos Rios a year ago, is highly revered. Marti was the delegate of the insurgent party to this city, and Gomez for the purpose of arranging a plan of campaign. While he was in conference with Gomez the camp was attacked by a Spanish regiment, and in the battle which followed Marti was shot.

Last night's meeting was organized by the coun-cil of the ten Cuban Revolutionary clubs in New-York. Juan Fraga, the president of the council, presided. The hall was decorated with the Cuban Republic's colors, while at the front of the stage surrounded by flags, was placed a large oil painting of Marti. In the course of several speeches, which were all delivered in the Spanish language, many tributes were paid to the memory of José Marti. His devotion to the Cuban cause, his indefatigable efforts to promote its success, the integrity of his character and his high literary attainments received the fullest recognition from the speakers. The speakers on behalf of the Cuban party in this city expressed their determination to support in every way in their power the revolutionary forces, and predicted that success was certain. Addresses were made by Senor Fraga, Manuel Sanguilly, who was an insurgent colonel in the ten years' war; Enrique José Varona. Enrique Trujillo, rrancesco Chancon and Tomas Estraia Palma, who succeeded Marti as the Cuban delegate to this city. of Marti. In the course of several speeches, which BURIED IN A TRENCH AT NYACK.

Three Italians were buried by a cave-in of a wer trench in North-st., Nyack, yesterday afternoon. Two of them were badly injured and are in a critical condition. Hundreds of people flocked to the place, and the police had all they could do to keep them away so their weight would not cause another cave-in. A complete sewer-system is being put in the town and this is the first accident that has occurred.

James Leighton, a well-known farmer of Haverstraw, was killed by a train on the West Shore Railroad, near Haverstraw, Monday evening, Leighton, was very deaf. He leaves a widow and family.

One of the noticeable attractions among th berless yachts tied up in Tebo's Basin, South Brooklyn, is the big steam yacht Eleanor, the property of William A. Slater, of the New-York Yacht Club Recently she was brought prominently forward in connection with the visit to the basin of Cornelius Vanderbilt and Chauncey M. Depew, and the report went abroad at that time that Mr. Vanderbilt was to make his first appearance as an active yachts-She has been chartered by R. D. Ballantine for Ballantine will participate in the August cruise of skipper, will remain in charge. The Eleanor is 231 feet over all, 208 feet water line length, 32 feet beam and 17 feet 5 inches depth. Little is needed in the Ex-Commodore Frank Swan, of the Atlantic Yach' Club, is now the owner of a tip-top cruising cathoat which was launched without a flutter from the ways in Plant's yard, Twenty-sixth-st., South Brooklyn, yesterday. Her name is the Sayonara, which name was charmingly pronounced by Mr. Swan's daughter Helen as she broke a bottle of champagne over the bow of the little craft as she slid from the ways. The boat is 30 feet over all, 20 feet and 9 inches on the water line, and 2 feet 4 inches draught. A party of the ex-commodore's friends had luncheon at the Yacht Hotel after the launch. Mr. Swan will use the Sayonara for cruising and fishing. He was formerly the owner of the sloop yacht Rover.

designed and built for Louis Bossert by Charles L. Seabury & Co., was successfully launched from their works at Nyack-on-Hudson at 3 o'clock yes-terday afternoon. The yacht glided off the ways quickly. She sets beautifully in the water, Her principal dimensions are: Length over all, & feet; draught, 5 feet. Her keel, stem, sternpost and deadwoods are all of oak. The decks are of white pine. Aft of the forehold are the crew's quarters and crew's toilet. Next aft is the galley, arranged with icebox, stove, sink, etc., complete. The engine

The owner's quarters are aft, and consist of two The owner's quarters are aft, and consist of two staterooms side by side, finished in hardwoods. On the starboard side is the tollet-room, and opposite it is a controom. Next aft is the main salcon, fitted with lockers and transoms for sleeping on; all handsomely finished in hardwoods. The yacht is schooner rigged, and will steer from a low bridge forward. The machinery consists of two Seabury triple-expansion engines of the latest design, and a Seabury patent safety water-tube boiler of latest design. Her speed is about fourteen miles an hour. Mr. Bossert will use the Mayita for cruising principally with his family. She will be ready for delivery in a short time.

The Hiawatha had a preliminary run yesterday and made more than seventeen and a half miles an hour. To-day she will have an official trial. This is Mr. Fleischmann's new yacht, which was built by Seabury & Co. The contract speed is sixteen miles an hour.

LAWN TENNIS IN WASHINGTON.

PLAY IN THE SOUTHERN CHAMPIONSHIP TOUR-

NAMENT BEGUN Washington, May 19 (Special).-Despite the frequent thunderstorms here to-day, the annual lawn tennis tournament for the championship of the South began this afternoon on the courts of the Bachelors' Lawn Tennis Club. A small gathering of enthusiasts, Secretary Olney among them, cheered on the players. Among the sixteen entries for the handsome prizes offered by the Southern Lawn Tennis Association were two representatives from New-york, two from the extreme West, one from Cleve-land, and a number of Washington and Baltimore land, and a number of washington, the New-Yorkers, players. Paret and Worthington, the New-Yorkers, won their first matches, but the latter caug' 'a Tarwon their first matches, but the latter caug' 'a Tartar in Goodfellow, a Washington expert, and he was not vanquished until three close sets had been played. Davidson, the strongest of the Southern players, will meet Beckwith, of Cleveland, to-morrow, and the winner will probably meet Paret in the finals on Friday or Saturday unless Worthington should upset calculations by beating Davidson or Beckwith. Play will continue to-morrow afternoon, when the doubles will be started. The strongest teams entered are Paret and Davidson, Beckwith and Worthington and Clay. In the singles the winner of the first prize will also get the Southern Championship Challenge Cup, for Post, of Baltimore, who won it last year, will not defend his claim to the cup. To-day's scores follow:

Championship singles—First round—J. Patmiy Paret beat H. R. Gower, 6-1, 6-3, John Clay beat P. W. MacMahon, 7-5, 6-3, John Tobin beat H. H. Westert by default. W. P. Metcalf beat T. A. Driscoll by default. T. C. Beckwith beat H. P. Boyle, 6-0, 6-4, J. C. Oavidson beat L. C. Stiley by default. George Worthington beat J. C. Goodfellow, 6-1, 3-6, 6-3, F. Georghegan beat W. B. Smith, 6-2, 7-5.

AUSTRALIANS DOWN THE BRITISH. London, May 19.-The cricket match at Sydenham between the English and Australian teams, which began yesterday, when the English eleven made 114 runs in their first inning and the Australians 108 before they were retired. The Englishmen them went in for their second innings and were put out after making but 39 runs, their total for the two innings being 15% The Australians therefore won the game by an innings and 221 runs. GOLF TOURNAMENT AT ELMSFORD.

The regular spring golf tournament of the Knollwood Country Club, of Elmsford, will begin this morning at 10:30 o'clock. The first rounds in the match for the cup given by Augustus T. Gillender will be played to-day and will probably continue to-morrow and Friday. On Saturday will take place the regular handleap for the Knollwood Club Cup. The games begin each day at 10:30 a. m. and 2 At the St. Andrews Golf Club, this afternoon, the second monthly handleap for Class B will be held.

A. M. Robbins won in the Class A division last Wedneslay. There wil also be a golf competition to-day at the Essex County Country Club, of Orange, N. J.

WIND AND RAIN AT THE CREEDMOOR RANGE.

A second detachment of the 7th Regiment, com-posed of companies F and G, numbering 169 officers and men, under command of Major J. C. Abrams, practised at Creedmoor yesterday The weather was fair, but a strong wind blew, which, although not as violent as Monday's, made good shooting difficult. At 2:45 p. m. a violent wind and rain storm difficult. At 2:30 p. m. a violent wind and rain storm arose and stopped the shooting until 3:30 p. m. Brigadier-General Benjamin M. Whitlock, General State Inspector of Rifle Practice, supervised the shooting, assisted by Lieutenant George M. Carnochan, Inspector of Rifle Practice, 7th Regiment. The volley firing at the "m.an" target resulted as follows: THE IDEAL FRENCH TONIC.
